To Bloom or not to Bloom?

Yes, that is the question.

Making the decision to use various products and services to assist with your wedding planning is a big choice because, let's face it, you could always be spending the money on something else.

Well, you'll be surprised when we tell you that the professional products and services available through Bloom Events can actually save you time and money with access to a range of suppliers, contacts and ideas you may never have even considered.

And the best news is Bloom Events has been created with you in mind so you decide how much you spend. We specialise in making your wedding day exactly what you want, therefore, the way you use this website and our company is totally up to you.

At Bloom, the aim of our products and services are to provide you with choice.

If you want a full service wedding with every detail catered for, we can do this. On the other hand, if you want help with the odd and ends or just need some advice, we are the business for you.

Hiring an event manager for your wedding should not mean that you comprise your own ideas and style. At Bloom, we listen, provide you with expert advice and leave you with memories that will last a lifetime.

But what if you want to plan your whole wedding yourself and just need the tools to do this?

Well, Bloom has this covered as well.

Bloom Events have created a product called the Bloom Wedding Planner – a unique online planning tool which allows you to do everything yourself from guest lists and personalised stationary to budgets and running schedules. And best of all, you can chat to other brides and our resident wedding expert, Clara. To find out more, click here.

So, you have been inspired to plan your own wedding – great choice.

Using Bloom Wedding Planner you will be able to plan a well thought out and visually inspiring event and the best thing is, when your guests ask you who the clever person is behind your beautiful day, you can graciously reply, me!

Bloom Wedding Planner can help you theme your wedding from beach themes to oriental to a spring garden wedding. Or, you can take your own journey and have fun deciding what will work for you and your partner.

And don't worry, it's not just about stationary and photography, we will help you with the hard things too such as what should be said in speeches, what to say in your vows, what to eat leading up to the wedding so you are happy and healthy and have enough energy to get through the day and the big one, sticking to your budget. And this is just the tip of the ice berg, so why sign up and get started!

You will notice as you follow your journey through the Bloom Wedding Planner, we have incorporated a rating system to give you an indication of the most cost effective choices or the most premium products available – just another way we making it your choice.

For example; once you have completed your stationary you may choose to print your invites on your printer at home, which would be the most cost effective way to produce your finished invites, or you may choose to have them professionally printed, which would be a more premium product.

And best of all, although you are planning your own wedding, I will be here the whole time offering tips and advice to help you add those special touches and personalise your wedding.

Calendar

The calendar will be one of the most important tools in your wedding planning adventure.

Upon entering your wedding date into the calendar, we will make recommendations on when you should be carrying out each step of the planning process, such as when to book and reception and ceremony venue and when to order the cake. Feel free to move the dates around that we have suggested and add your own dates too.

The calendar will also store all your completed work and all your meeting notes and contacts so you can look back at important information.

Tip

If you are struggling to get everything done , ask friends and family to help. This will mean you are on top of things as your wedding date draws closer.
